

Task 2:

Difference between absolute and relative is :

Absolute position: is adjust the position respect to his parent, in some case if no parent , then its use document body as a parent.

Relative position : its seatting , top, right, buttom and left property of an element with position relative poperty will cause it to adjust from its normal position. Other object element will not fill